

Lee Doney to Join Hayes Forest Services Limited

Duncan, B.C. – Hayes Forest Services Limited is pleased to announce that it has retained Mr. Lee Doney for ongoing corporate development and strategic advice. Mr. Doney is well regarded as an influential voice in the British Columbia forest industry. He has served as a Deputy Minister for the Government of British Columbia for over 15 years where his postings included the Ministry of Forests and the Ministry of Skills, Training and Labour. Mr. Doney also served as the CEO of Forest Renewal BC, the CEO of the BC Labour Force Development Board, the Interim Chair of the Industry Training and Apprenticeship Commission, the Chair of the Workers Compensation Board of Governors, the Executive Director for the BC Treaty Commission and the Executive Director for the Provincial Round Table on the Environment and the Economy.

“Lee has a tremendous depth of experience with labour, government and the restructuring of our coastal forest industry,” commented Hayes President, Donald P. Hayes, “As we continue to grow and evolve, Lee will be a great asset to our team.”

In April, 2004, Mr. Doney retired as Deputy Minister of Skills, Training and Labour. He will officially join Hayes as of June 15th, 2004.

Hayes is the leading private forest services provider in British Columbia. With the broadest service offering in the industry, Hayes has been known for innovation and integrity since 1922. Based in Duncan, B.C., Hayes continues to be privately held by the Hayes family.
